

About Aagman India

Aagman India Travel & Living is a professionally managed organization dedicated to providing luxury tented accommodation in fairs & festivals of different regions in India. We promote the Rural India, our Real India.

India is a subcontinent with 70% of its mammoth population living in rural India. It is common for travelers to visit the major cities and landmarks of India that they have heard and read about. But if one is interested in a close-up on Indian culture, living, customs and tradition, there couldn't be any better place than villages? In Indian villages, the simplicity and tradition is reflected in every aspect of life. Inhabitants here find satisfaction in their own simple ways.

The Aagman Team with their rural background have travelled extensively throughout India and is in an exciting position of being able to share detailed specialist knowledge and love of India with you and to the prospective traveler.

We are proud of the difference we help to achieve and will continue to promote sustainable and responsible tourism to ensure that everything we cherish in this beautiful country is experienced by our guests.

Aagman India offers its valued guests a chance to view and experience village life along with Luxury Camping. The superb facilities on the campsites, the beautiful locations, and the extensive recreational opportunities with our Team's personal touch... Make your stay an experience of a lifetime.
